Lindy, Anne Thought Honeymooning on Georgia Isle

VERACITY IS LENT RUMOR BY BARRING OF NEWSPAPER MEN

Sapelo or Romantic St. Catherine's Islands Believed Hiding Place of Famous Bridal Couple.

REPORTERS NOT ALLOWED TO LAND

Report Says Colonel and Mrs. Lindbergh Set Ashore Friday by Yacht or Plane.

Brunswick, Ga., May 31.—(United News.)—The rumor that Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh and his bride were honeymooning on an island off the coast of Georgia was strengthened tonight by the announcement that newspapermen would not be permitted to land at Sapelo Island, owned by Howard E. Coffin, millionaire automobile magnate.

The only speedboat at Sea Island belongs to the Sea Island Development Company, a Coffin holding, and tonight was guarded by two men. C. F. Redden, vice president of the company, gave orders that its use was not to be permitted.

"If Colonel and Mrs. Lindbergh are at Sapelo Island, they would have requested the privilege of remaining in seclusion," Redden said. "Mr. Coffin would expect to respect their wishes, and I will do nothing to violate his confidence."

The Lindberghs were reported to have been set ashore at St. Catherine Island by the Coffin yacht, Zaphira, this afternoon. Redden's attitude, however, seemed to indicate that they may be on Sapelo Island instead.

Rumor has it that they arrived in an amphibian plane from New York yesterday afternoon, accompanied by two officials of the Transcontinental Air Transport Corporation, a concern with which Lindbergh is connected. The only approach to Sapelo Island is by water, and the docks are privately controlled by Mr. Coffin.

T. CATHERINE'S IS IDYLIC PLACE.

Savannah, Ga., May 31.—(United News.)—The search for Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh and his bride of four days shifted tonight to a little semi-tropical island off the coast of Georgia, a spot as secluded and steeped in legend as may be found on the entire Atlantic coast.

The rumor that the celebrated newsmen were honeymooning on St. Catherine Island materialized yesterday afternoon, according to apparently authentic reports, and now are guests of Howard E. Coffin on his yacht Zaphira. The yacht tonight was cruising in the vicinity of St. Catherine Island.

HUGE NAVAL COST CITED BY STIMSON

Contemplated Naval Program of United States Calls for Expenditure of $1,170,800,000.

Washington, May 31.—(AP)—Declaring that the authorized and contemplated naval program of the United States for new ships amounts to $1,170,800,000, Secretary Stimson said today in a statement that few realized the immense burden imposed on the world by the cost of modern ships of war.

The secretary's statement was made in commenting upon the speech of President Hoover at Arlington National cemetery, Mr. Stimson declaring that he wished to call "attention to another aspect" of naval disarmament.

Emphasizing that the $1,170,800,000 involved the construction program of only one nation—the United States—the secretary said that if this country proceeded other nations would be impelled to follow, and "the burden of unproductive expenditure which will be imposed upon the economic world during the next 15 years can be to a certain extent realized."

"The president yesterday spoke about it (the naval disarmament problem) with reference to its direct relation," Mr. Stimson continued, "to the promotion of peace and to relieving the world from the threat of war. In addition to these considerations we do not always realize the immense material burden which is imposed upon the nations by the cost of modern ships of war."

"That cost is mounting with every fresh discovery in warfare," Mr. Stimson said, "a modern capital ship costs between $25,000,000 and $40,000,000—several times the cost of the battleship of a few years ago. Even a modern 10,000-ton cruiser costs more than double the original cost of the Library of Congress."

"I have in my possession a memorandum from the director of the bureau showing the cost of the program recommended by the navy department under the policy of naval reduction which the president advocates is not adopted. That memorandum shows that the authorized and contemplated naval program for the construction of new ships alone amounts to $1,170,800,000. In addition to this enormous sum for new construction there will also be required very large increases in the already large naval budget to cover the operating cost of these new ships."

COUNCILMAN'S CAR STOLEN; 3 YOUTHS PUT UNDER ARREST

Detectives Satterfield and Barrett Friday afternoon arrested Alvin Jackson, Dan Tolbert and W. D. Dempsey, all of 401 Forsyth street, in connection with the alleged theft of two automobiles. One of the automobiles belonged to Councilman H. T. Locher, of the first ward, and was recovered, after it had been sold by the youths, it was said.

'HONEYED WORDS,' Ramsay M'Donald To Be New Premier Of Great Britain

EMORY HONORS HOWARD CANDLER

Prominent Atlantan Named To Succeed His Father as Head of University Trustees.

Charles Howard Candler, of Atlanta, was elected president of the board of trustees of Emory university at its annual meeting Friday, to fill the vacancy created by the death of Asa G. Candler, Sr., who had been head of the board since its organization.

H. Y. McCord, Jr., of Atlanta, whose term as alumni trustee expired this year, was selected to fill the membership on the board left vacant by Mr. Candler's death.

The new evidence came in a letter from Chief of Police J. L. Gibson, of Hapeville, Ga., where Parks was held, that he had been found dead in a rooming house in Atlanta, rather than return to his father's home.

"On May 17," the Hapeville officer wrote, "a registered letter came to Parks from Mrs. Powers enclosing $10 and telling Parks to come back to Macon and that she had a nice room for him all ready furnished, and also promising other things if he would just come back."

Gibson promised affidavits and the request by the solicitor-general that said his case was "complete" but that he was still delving into the history of the case, the disappearance of a man on whom Mrs. Powers had insurance and the violent death of the agent who sold the policy were also investigated together with more recent interviews between Mrs. Powers and young men who answered her advertisements offering "homelike surroundings."

Police tonight announced they had a report from another insurance company that Mrs. Powers had received a settlement on a life insurance policy.

Archbishop Ruiz Appointed Apostolic Delegate to Mexico by Pope Pius; Will Confer With Gil.

Washington, May 31.—(AP)—Early negotiations for settlement of the differences between the Mexican government and the Roman Catholic church were presaged tonight by the announcement by Archbishop Ruiz, president of the Mexican bishops' conference, that he had been appointed by the pope to be apostolic delegate in Mexico.

President Porfirio Gil is understood to be ready to receive overtures from the church looking toward re-establishment of the Catholic ecclesiastical organization in Mexico. He took a step in that direction recently by an address to the archbishop here of an invitation for negotiations.

Indications Are Senate Members Will Recommend Dropping Debiture in Final Report.

CONFEREES NEAR END OF MEETINGS ON FARM RELIEF

Washington, May 31.—(AP)—Agreement upon the report to be made to the senate and house on farm relief legislation, including a recommendation for the elimination of the export debenture plan, is expected to be reached tomorrow by the farm relief conference committee.

The report would have to be approved by both branches of congress before the legislation could be sent to President Hoover and chief interest was manifested on how the proposal to eliminate the debenture section would be received by the senate.

The most recent check of the senate membership have been held to indicate little change in sentiment among those favoring the debenture plan. Administration leaders, however, were hopeful the opinion would prevail that speedy enactment of a farm law, considered to be possible only if debentures are eliminated, was the paramount duty of congress, and that debenture advocates would decide to tack their proposal onto the tariff bill instead of insisting on its embodiment in farm legislation.

Meet Again Today.

Senator McNary, of Oregon, chairman of the conference committee, has called a meeting for tomorrow. The conferees expect to continue their negotiations all day if necessary to complete a report before tonight.

Consider Farm Board.

At today's meeting the conferees decided upon the wording of the declaration of policy, and began a discussion of how many members should comprise the proposed farm board and the manner of fixing the salary of the chairman. The house bill provides for a board of six members with the chairman's salary fixed by the president. The senate's bill would set up a farm board of 12 members, all of whom would be paid a salary.

Conferees indicated that the final draft would recommend a board of five members receiving a $12,000 annual salary.

The provisions under which stabilization corporations would be set up and operated also are different in the two bills.

The senate measure provides for government organization and operation of the stabilization agencies, but the house bill would leave them in the hands of the co-operatives. In compromising the differences between the two bills, it has been intimated that the house provisions would be retained by the conferees.

LIBERALS WILL NOT USE POWER UNFAIRLY.

London, May 31.—(United News.) Ramsay MacDonald expressed no surprise today at the size of labor party gains in the house of commons.

"I am catching a train to London to survey the field of battle," he told his enthusiastic supporters in Thesemham division, "you have finished your fight, I am only beginning to hear the burden, but I do it cheerfully."

Later he said:

"The labor party will be decided when the full results are known."

David Lloyd George, liberal leader, returned from Carnarvon, his constituency, and issued the following statement:

"No party has done as well as was expected. It would be silly for the liberals to pretend we realized our expectations. Holding the balance of power is a very responsible position and you can depend on it that we will make no unfair use of it. The party government must be carried on and it is essential the government be steady. We will bear that in mind."

Second Budget DIRECTOR ENDS GOVERNMENT DUTY

Washington, May 31.—(AP)—Brigadier-General Herbert M. Lord, retired, director of the purchase of $50,000,000 worth of Ford products during the next four years and also build an automobile factory under the direction of Ford engineers, was signed today by Henry Ford and representatives of Ford.

He will take a month's vacation before beginning his new work. He is Arthur S. Kleiman, company, investment broker, in New York.

Ford in Russia.

Detroit, May 31.—(AP)—An agreement between the Ford Motor Company and Russia, by which the soviet government must be carried on, was signed today by Henry Ford and representatives of Ford.

Opera Patron Dies.

Philadelphia, May 31.—(AP)—W. Attmore Robinson, 41, vice president of the Philadelphia Civic Opera Company, died today at his home here.

Mr. Robinson was known in music and art circles here and abroad. He also was an archeologist and linguist of some note.

NO SUMMER REST AS LONG AS BILL REMAINS IN SNARL

Interest of Country Demands Determination of Both Farm and Tariff, He Says.

MUST SET DATE FOR TARIFF VOTE

Borah and Jones Back Hoover's Stand for Continuation as Others Pine for Vacation.

Washington, May 31.—(AP)—Support for the stand of the senate and house republican leaders against a summer recess of the special session, unless farm relief legislation is first enacted and a definite date fixed for disposing of the tariff bill in the senate this fall, was announced today by President Hoover.

With a break in sight on the deadlock between the two branches on farm relief, whereby the export debenture provision of the senate bill would be eliminated, Senator Watson—the majority leader—is ready to ask for definite dates for the tariff votes and to propose the all-summer recess.

Must Get to Work.

The tentative dates fix June 12 for starting the recess and September 9 for its termination, with November 9 for a vote on the tariff bill and November 25 for a vote on the report of the conference committee which must compromise differences between the senate and house versions of the measure.

President Hoover's statement made in response to inquiries by the press was as follows:

"The majority leaders, both Senator Watson and Congressman Tilton, are united in their recommendations to me that there should be no recess in the special session until farm legislation is complete, and that there should be no recess after that except for a few weeks to accommodate the senate as far as possible in its hearings on the tariff bill unless there is a completely fixed agreement in the senate as to an early date upon which a vote will be taken on the bill, with a further agreed period for debate on the conference reports, which would assure a final vote in the senate as early as possible."

"The interest of the country obviously necessitates the rapid determination of both these questions, and I am entirely in accord with their views."

Democrats Want Debate.

Whether the November date for a vote on the tariff measure in the senate will be agreed upon is problematical. The majority leaders, however, are opposed to any recess. Senator Jones, of Washington, the assistant republican leader, likewise thinks a recess unwise. Both would have congress stay here and hasten the finance committee along with its work.

There is some talk of seeking a special order of rule in the senate whereby a two-thirds vote would fix a limitation upon debate on the tariff bill.

APPEAL FOR EICH TAKEN TO SUPREME COURT OF GEORGIA

An appeal to the state supreme court was taken Friday in the case of Ernest Eich, 19-year-old convicted slayer of his 18-year-old bride, of less than a year, Elizabeth Eich. The appeal was taken when Superior Judge J. Ogden Persons, of Forsyth, gave his approval to a petition signed by Philip Weltner, Marvin G. Russell and Len B. Guilbeau, attorneys for Eich. Guilbeau came into the case since young Eich was convicted and sentenced to a life term by Judge Persons, who was sitting here as a special judge.

Son of Ex-Banker Charged With Drunkenness.

A Rankin Manley, son of W. D. Manley, former head of the defunct Bankers Trust Company, who is free on bond awaiting trial for alleged violation of the state banking laws, was fined $25 in the city criminal court Friday on a charge of intoxication. Young Manley paid the fine. County policemen testified that they arrested Manley at his father's Park Ferry road home after they had received complaints that he was on the premises in an intoxicated condition and creating a disturbance.

CRIME STUDY STARTED

Governor Hardman's Commission Meets.

The crime commission appointed by Governor L. G. Hardman to study crime conditions in Georgia met Friday morning in the offices of the chairman, Federal Judge Samuel H. Sibley.

It was decided by the members that no information regarding actions of the body should be made public until the results of their study can be put in the form of a final report, which it is understood will be submitted to the governor by the time of the meeting of the legislature.

In addition to Judge Sibley those present at the meeting included J. Quinn West, of Thomson; Warren Grice, of Macon; Mrs. Mildred Seydel, of Atlanta; Robert S. W. Rampeck, of Decatur; J. H. McGhee, of Talbotton; Senora Wright, of Rome, and Sam Matthews, of Fort Valley.

'Phone Here 50 Years Ago

Friday, May 31, Charles B. McGaughey recalled the fact that just 50 years before, he detained in Atlanta from Greenville, Tenn., to set up the newly arrived telephone system in this city.

The temporary headquarters were in the top of the old Kimball House. The company promoting the new utility was formed by Governor Joseph E. Brown, his son, Julius L. Brown, and several of their friends and business associates. A test line had been tried out between the Kimball House and the Constitution office on Broad street. Then a line was carried over rooftops up Marietta street to the state capitol, then at the corner of Marietta and Forsyth streets. A connection was made from there to the office of Governor Brown, president of the Western & Atlantic railroad, down on the tracks.

It was not until May 9 that the Georgia branch of the National Bell Telephone Company advertised itself as prepared to do business in the forty-fourth exchange then operating in the whole United States.

Mr. McGaughey was the engineer who installed the system and practically invented the first switchboard that was used in Atlanta. James M. Orme was general manager, Joe Jeffries was office manager and Joseph Moody was solicitor. On May 7 Moody had succeeded in enlisting six subscribers for phones. The Constitution, the governor's office at the capitol, Governor Brown's office, Julius Brown's office, the Kimball House and Dr. Willis F. Westmoreland. There were no telephone poles used then, the wires being stretched through insulators on the roofs of the intervening buildings. The new phones grew slowly at first, but as the business people realized their utility they grew in popularity—and now see what we have in Atlanta, with almost instant connections to all the world.

Mr. McGaughey is the only survivor of all those who were instrumental in promoting the first telephone service in the city.

Bacon Combinations

BY MARIE GIFFORD.

Department of Food Economics

Armour & Co.

It is generally conceded that a combination of meat and vegetables or cereal foods is far more palatable than the latter served alone. Cereals left from the morning meal, mixed with bread crumbs, egg and simple seasoning and used as a dressing for stuffed bacon slices, form the foundation for a very substantial and satisfying meal.

Stuffed Bacon Slices.
Twelve slices bacon, 23 cups bread crumbs. Make a moist bread dressing. Place one heaping teaspoon on one end of slice of bacon; roll the bacon slice around the dressing and fasten with a toothpick or small skewer. Broil, turning frequently to brown on all sides, or fry in pan, turning to cook evenly on all sides, basting with the drippings.

During spring potatoes stored from last fall have lost their bloom and when new potatoes are not available at a moderate price, macaroni and spaghetti should take the place of this starchy vegetable. Bacon and macaroni form a very happy union in the following dish:

Bacon and Macaroni.
One cup macaroni, one cup bacon, one cup stock; salt and pepper to taste. Break the macaroni into small pieces, put into slightly salted water, boil rapidly for five minutes, then drain well. Have some stock boiling in a saucepan, but not too soft. Cut bacon into small dice, fry slightly in pan, then add the well-drained macaroni, bacon drippings, a good pinch of nutmeg and salt and pepper to taste. Stir gently over the fire until the macaroni acquires a nice brown color; turn on a hot dish and serve. Serves four portions.

The never-separated pair, bacon and eggs, are always a satisfying combination. Of course there are many ways of preparing this dish, but I like the following:

Bacon and Eggs.
Place thinly sliced bacon on board and with a broad-bladed knife spread strips as thin as possible. Put in cold frying pan and cook until crisp, and brown, turning frequently and occasionally pouring off fat from pan. Remove bacon to platter and return fat to the pan. Slip eggs one at a time into the hot fat, and cook until the white is firm, basting frequently with the fat. Remove and serve on a platter with the bacon.

The OBOY GANG—THE PUP IMPROVES ON THE EASTER EGG HUNT!

OBOY BREAD

THE BREAD THAT'S DEDICATED TO ALL CHILDREN BECAUSE IT'S SO GOOD FOR THEM

THE pup has his own ideas about hunting at Easter time. Eggs don't mean a thing to him when there's Oboy bread to be had! And the rest of the gang are inclined to agree.

Have you plenty of Oboy bread for the Easter holidays? Oboy is worthy of the biggest dinner. Its glorious golden crust, crisp and flaky—its smooth white heart, fine and firm and creamy—will go a long way toward making a marvelous meal. And you'll need a great deal of it to satisfy holiday appetites. The Oboy flavor is the kind that will make all the family come back for "one more slice"—several times!

Of course, Oboy's goodness is not restricted to special occasions. It is always available, always the same. Day after day your grocer gets it fresh from the ovens. Heavy waxed paper protects it for you. When you can get such a luscious loaf so easily, it is poor economy to bother with baking. Unless you bake every day, and you can hardly do that, the family must often eat stale bread. You'll save time and trouble by acquiring the "Oboy habit."

Arkwright Tells History Of Electric Light To Open Golden Jubilee Festival

Atlanta Shows Development of Fifty Years; Lauds Edison as Leader in Nation's Progress.

Atlantic City, N. J., May 31.—Tracing briefly the growth of the electric industry from the first feeble lamp in Edison's laboratory 50 years ago to the present when 25,000,000 customers in the United States alone are supplied with electric service, Preston S. Arkwright, of Atlanta, president of the National Electric Light Association, and president of the Georgia Power Company, tonight inaugurated "Light's Golden Jubilee." His speech officially opened the international "Festival of Light" being staged as a tribute to Thomas Edison in the 50th anniversary year of the invention of the incandescent electric lamp and which will reach its climax on the night of October 21, the actual anniversary of the first successful demonstration of the lamp at Menlo Park, N. J.

"So useful a need did the electric lamp fill that two and a half billion of its fellows are in use today," Mr. Arkwright said. "Pointing out the many improvements in the lamp since Edison's first one, Mr. Arkwright said that this had been accomplished along with a great reduction in the cost of electric light.

Cheapest Light. "It is the cheapest light the world has ever had," he said. "It is one hundred times cheaper than candlelight, many times cheaper than oil light, and it is the only light that has ever before. The cost of one candle on the baby's first birthday cake is many times more than the cost of lighting with electricity the whole dining room for the party. Indeed electric light actually costs less than natural light inside the house. Natural light in the great outdoors is free, but it costs money to bring it in, behind the walls.

"It is the only artificial light without flame. With its coming the terrors of the dark were banished; useful time lengthened; available space widened; was reduced; efficiency increased; the art, convenience, comfort, happiness, and usefulness of mankind enlarged.

Edison's invention marked the birth of the electric industry, Mr. Arkwright said, adding:

"Altogether it brings new application of the service, new devices to take the place of human drudgery, to lighten and brighten the work of life, to multiply the output of the factory and the earnings of the workman, and to take away the physical tasks of the home.

"No wonder that all over the world the 50th anniversary of the birth of the electric incandescent lamp is celebrated."

The program Friday evening also marked the inauguration of Atlantic City's "Diamond Jubilee" celebration as a municipality and the opening of the new Atlantic City auditorium, largest convention hall in the world. The great hall will be first used by the National Electric Light Association for its annual convention beginning Tuesday, over which Mr. Arkwright will preside. Vice President Charles Curtis, of Kansas, Howard, British ambassador, and other notable in the electric industry and public life appeared on the same program with Mr. Arkwright.

WORK OF STUDENTS ON EXPERIMENTAL FARM NETS $17,400

Three hundred and thirty-five students, working from 18 to 36 hours a week on its experimental farm during the year ending May 29, enriched the coffers of the Fifth District A. & M. college at Monroe to the extent of approximately $17,400. William S. Cox, a member of the board of trustees, and former president of Cox college, said Friday.

They are not being taught to leave the farm, he said, but to go back to it. Mr. Cox asserted in advocating more and bigger institutions of this kind for Georgia. Only $150 is required to pay a student's expense for a 10-month term, he pointed out, "and it would cost the parents that much to keep him at home."

LINDBERGH'S NAME WILL NOW APPEAR IN SOCIAL REGISTER

New York, May 31.—(AP)—The Evening Post said today that the name of Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh, which has been blazoned on the first page of every newspaper on earth, will be printed next month for the first time in the more exclusive pages of the Social Register.

The entry in the summer edition will read: "Miss Morrow, Anne Spencer (Dwight W.), married at Englewood, N. J., May 27, Lindbergh, Colonel Charles A."

This would follow the policy of the Social Register to record the marriage of one already listed, as Mrs. Lindbergh was. Continuation of listing of the person to whom the social register was married in later editions is in the discretion of the committee which passes upon qualifications.

Camp Fire Girls End Doughnut Drive Today

A group of Camp Fire Girls are pictured above on a city fire department truck, just after they had paraded through the city streets in a last-minute reminder that today is the final day in the annual doughnut drive for the local girls' organization. The picture was taken at Piedmont Park, an unusual setting for a fire truck, and shows W. J. (Bill) Cowan, driver for Station No. 19, at the wheel. J. B. Hill, a fireman who aided in the drive; Mrs. George Rosenbaum, in the driver's seat beside Mr. Cowan, and at the extreme left, Mr. Collier is vice president of Atlanta Camp Fire, Inc. This is the fourth year the Stone Baking Company has donated a large per cent of its state-wide gross sales on doughnuts for a week to the Camp Fire Girls camp. The money this year will be used to purchase equipment for the lake, which will be opened this summer for the first time. Canoes, rafts, diving boards, etc., are included in the equipment for 1929. The doughnut drive last year was used for camp equipment.

Atlanta fliers, repeating their flashy work of last Saturday, took first honors Friday at the opening of Macon's three-day aeronautical exposition. The first day's program, in addition to the races and other aerial events, included ceremonies attendant upon the inauguration of night flying at Miller field, in which Pietenra planes dived above while city officials switched on the lights for the first time.

Johnny Kyle, Pietenra mail pilot, grabbed the choicest morsel of the day when he walked away with the 20-mile race for Whirlwind-powered ships and the first prize money of $200. He was flying a Super-Mailing and his time for the distance was 15 minutes and 40 seconds. F. A. Stone, also a Pietenra entry, ran second in a Mailing and pocketed $75 thereby, while Doug Davis, in Charles Arnold's J-6 150-horsepower Travel Air, arrived at the finish line two seconds later to win $25.

In the race marked to OX-5 motors and run over the same course, Doug Davis, in his Travel Air, negotiated the distance in 15 minutes and 8 seconds and was awarded $100. Beeler Blevins, in a Challenger, won $75 for second place and J. G. Mason, of Montgomery, Ala., $15 for running third.

Mac Johnson, of Augusta, won the mock "bombing" contest and $35 by placing the missile in the center of the circle designed for it. Beeler Blevins' shot was only 17 yards away and he won $25, while R. G. Stratham, who was inaccurate to the extent of 45 yards, was given $15. In a 20-mile race for army ships, all from Maxwell field, Montgomery, Lieutenant J. G. Pratt, Lieutenant W. B. McCoy and Lieutenant Albert Boyd finished in the order named. A loving cup went to the victor, Miss Roo Flock, of Atlanta, contributed her bit by doing a parachute jump.

Johnny Kyle, already a great favorite with Macon aviation fans, more strongly entrenched himself in their regard by a series of interesting aerobatics.

The Atlanta chapter of the National Aeronautic Association will hold its next luncheon meeting at 12:30 o'clock Monday afternoon at the Chamber of Commerce and officials of the organization have urged a large attendance of pilots, aviation operators and any Atlantans who are interested in aeronautics. Among other matters with which the local chapter is concerned is enactment of air laws in Georgia, extension of air transportation, expansion of the aircraft industry, aeronautical training and education and aircraft exhibitions and competitions.

With the 1929 national air races and aeronautical exhibition still eight weeks away, more than 100 airplanes builders and accessory manufacturers out of a maximum possible accommodation of 250 already have contracted for exhibition space in the great $10,000,000 public auditorium at Cleveland, according to Clifford Henderson, managing director of the annual national events. Including squadrons from army, navy and marine corps units, approximately 1,000 planes are expected to take part in the air races, in commercial exhibitions and in the series of spectacular demonstrations planned. Five cross-country events are scheduled among the many race features of the ten-day meet.

Warm Weather Due To Remain As June Arrives

The merry month of May having passed into history in the midst of some of the warmest weather of the year, June will make its debut today under similar temperature conditions but with the probable addition of an added thundershower or so this afternoon, according to the forecast of C. E. von Hermann, local meteorologist.

A few clouds drifting lazily around rays of a beaming sun Friday afternoon and kept the mercury in the official thermometer just two degrees below the maximum of 88, which was reached Thursday afternoon. This performance will just about repeat itself today, Mr. von Hermann figures.

A light shower Thursday night brought the rain total for the month of May up to 6.10 inches or a percentage of 2.93, according to figures compiled Friday afternoon by Mr. von Hermann. The resulting total for the first five months of the year is 24.97 inches or an excess of 16.85, the largest amount of rain ever recorded here during a similar period. The maximum of 88, which was reached Thursday afternoon, was below the normal, the daily mean being 69.4, against the average figure of 69.9. With the exception of February, no other month this year has shown a temperature deficiency, the accumulated excess since January 1 being 383 degrees.

WOMAN RECOVERS AFTER 20-FOOT WINDOW FALL

Cartersville, Ga., May 31.—(Special.)—After a fall of 20 feet out of a window at the telephone exchange where she was working, Miss Ethel McElwee today was reported to be in a slightly improved condition. She sustained severe cuts and bruises about the face and head and escaped more serious injury miraculously.

Co-workers said Miss McElwee went to the window, from which screens had recently been removed, and sat down on the sill, leaning back, presumably to rest on the screen. She lost her balance and tumbled out of the window backwards.

THIRD MURDER STIRS CHICAGO POLICEMEN

Grocer, 56, Shot in Front of Store Is Third 36-Hour Period Victim.

Chicago, May 31.—(AP)—Another murder—the third in 36 hours and the most brutal of the three—was done last night when a man walked up to Ettore Quattrini sitting in front of his little grocery, and fired four bullets into his body.

Quattrini did not die at once. He was conscious when police arrived, and able to talk. But he would not say who shot him; and he denied knowledge of any reason—gang connection, black hand threats or personal vengeance—for the shooting.

The groceryman was 54 years old. He was married, the head of a family of three children, the oldest being 29. Yesterday police found the body of Donato Costa, known as a thief and stool pigeon, he had been done to death in gang fashion—taken for a "ride," beaten, shot and then dumped into a ditch on 83d street. A few hours earlier Thomas Celligotti was killed in a pistol duel in the basement barroom of a downtown grill. Celligotti had been arrested in connection with "rackets" and crimes of violence.

The kidnapping, apparently for ransom, of "Kid" Austin was another of the flames sent up by gangsters over the holiday. An anonymous telephone call to the detective bureau said: "Don't worry about that Austin guy. He is just being detained until his friends fix up a purse of $20,000."

WOULD OMIT ATLANTA ON NEW AIR ROUTE

Macon, Ga., May 31.—(P)—The Southern Airways Association went to Washington to voice its protest at the open hearing June 12.

The association has already selected a route which has been declared safer than any other to the west on account of its favorable weather conditions and topographical character. More-over, the association pointed out, that the route adopted by them: Washington, Raleigh, Columbia, Augusta, Macon, Columbus, Montgomery, Selma, Jackson, Monroe, Dallas and Fort Worth—has more population per mile than any other route now in use or proposed for future use for transcontinental flights.

Organization was perfected and articles of the association were adopted allowing each community along the route one membership. There was no provision made for private memberships or organization memberships, as these must be represented jointly by the membership of the community.

Representatives from Montgomery reported that plans were being launched for a passenger and express transportation line to operate on the proposed route.

The meeting adjourned for lunch at which an address was made by D. C. Collier, vice president of the Georgia Power Company, Atlanta. He referred to the use which his company was making of airplanes and the increasing use which it will make.

Mayor Luther Williams, R. G. Jordan, Dewitt McCrary, L. Gillen, Cuban Sasser, of New Mexico, and L. McConnell were present from Atlanta, representatives from Raleigh, Columbia, Montgomery, Selma and Monroe, La., were present.

ALLEGED PROMOTER OF PLAYGROUNDS HELD FOR TRIAL

J. A. Callan, 46, of 99 1-2 Walton street, was held over to city criminal court under a $200 bond, charged with cheating and swindling by Recorder Murphy M. Holloway Thursday.

Callan is alleged to have promoted a system of playgrounds in Atlanta for the summer and was planning on managing them, according to police. The recorder was told that Callan advertised in newspapers for playground directors and directors and when the advertisements were answered he told them of his chain playground system.

A runaway sale was held and it is alleged that Callan received most of the proceeds and applied the money to office rent.

It was brought out in the hearing that Callan had other plans under way for financing his project, when he was apprehended by police, who had been notified by Councilman John A. White, chairman of the parks committee of city council.

EUGENE NEWSOM, OF DURHAM, N. C., NEW ROTARY HEAD

Dallas, Texas, May 31.—(AP)—Eugene Newsom, of Durham, N. C., was named president of Rotary International for the coming year at the closing session of that organization's twentieth annual convention here today.

The vote for president was 1,354 for Newsom to 959 for Raymond Knapp, of New York city. This was the unanimous opinion on the motion of Knapp.

Carl W. Ackley, of Vineland, N. J.; Roy Ronald, of Mitchell, S. D.; Clyde H. Hays, of Des Moines, Iowa; Dave O'Hern, of Oklahoma City, and Dave Clark, of Charlotte, N. C., were elected directors of the international representing the United States.

HIT-AND-RUN CAR STRIKES DOWN COVINGTON GIRL

Covington, Ga., May 31.—(Special.)—Struck down by a hit-and-run driver near her home here late this afternoon, Virginia McMichael, 7, sustained a broken leg and severe bruises. She was rushed to Georgia Baptist hospital in Atlanta by her uncle, P. T. Austin.

MAN IS HELD UP.

Robert Atkinson, 23, of 743 Ponce de Leon avenue, was treated at Grady hospital Friday night for a bad bruise on his head, received when he was struck down on Ivy street, at the Hurt building, and robbed of $5 by three men, he told police. Atkinson was allowed to return home after treatment. He stated that he was walking out of the building when he was struck down by a heavy instrument and robbed. He could not tell police whether the benefits were white or black.

Davis, Beeler Blevins, Kytle, Atlanta Fliers, Take Prizes At Macon Air Show Opening

Thirty Colorful Planes Take Part in Big Program Which Continues Today and Sunday.

Macon, Ga., May 31.—(Special.)—With the roar of hidden motors high overhead, and sudden, sure landings in the flood of huge lumps—the first demonstration of night flying in Macon—the opening day program of the Southeastern Aeronautical Exposition was staged tonight.

More than 30 trim planes, of every color and design, rode the clouds, from as far as Virginia and Ohio to Macon during the day, and dropped down to Miller field for the largest airplane congress ever held here.

The taut fabrics of new ships, brilliantly colored, reflected the advance of a decade in aviation, since the first aeronautical exposition ever assembled in the United States was gathered here in May of 1919.

With the intermittent arrival of planes from all sections of the south, Miller field gradually took life until the airport fairly hummed with powerful propellers. Four army planes and three navy Wasp strode the air to the field behind big motors.

Program Saturday. The official program of events gets into full swing Saturday afternoon and continues Sunday. Large crowds are expected each day for races, trick landings and stunts for prizes.

Saturday's program includes a model contest, to be held at 11 o'clock, while the first flying event—a free-for-all race—starts at 2 o'clock. Dedication of the new lighting apparatus and demonstration of night flying featured the first day's events.

With a turn of the switch Mayor Luther Williams performed the dedication. Large crowds remained to see the night flying.

A race for planes with OX-5 motors brought five neat ships to the starting line in the first competition of the exposition. Their motors idling the planes awaited in line for the signal.

With a roar and a sudden burst of speed the little planes jerked forward in turn, arose in almost 100 feet and struggled for altitude. In order they traced around a triangular course of more than 20 miles.

Davis Wins. Douglas H. Davis, of the Davis Flying Service, of Atlanta, completed the three laps in the best time. He was clocked at 15:08. Beeler Blevins, flying a Challenger, followed Davis, Traveler, was second in 15:53. L. G. Mason, of Montgomery, Ala., with an American Eagle was third with 17:15. The race carried prizes of $100, $75 and $15.

Speed of the airmail planes was demonstrated in a similar race open for whirlwind motors, when Johnny Kyle, famous stunter and airmail pilot of Atlanta, turned the three laps in 13:40.5. He flew a Super-Mailing.

F. A. Stone, also an airmail pilot, on the Macon-Jacksonville route, was second in another Mailing with a time of 13:48. Just two seconds before mobile death claim.

hind was Doug Davis, flying Charles Arnold's Whirlwind motor plane. The prizes were $200, $75 and $25.

A bombing contest brought out most of the humor of the program, when 10 pilots cast bags of flour in all parts of the field and near-by woods. The target was a circular ring at the lower end of the airport. In the exact center at the judges, who were content they had found the safest possible place.

A bomb by M. A. C. Johnson, of Augusta, however, destroyed the composure of the group. The pilot was the only one to drop his "bomb" within the ring. The bag struck a few feet to the side of R. G. Jordan, chairman of the aviation committee of city council.

Blevins Second. The second best bomb of the entrants proved to be Blevins, whose sack exploded 17 yards from the target. R. G. Stratham, of Albany, was third with a miss of 43 yards. The other tosses were over 175 yards, while some of them were never seen.

W. L. Strubling, Jr., the fighter-aviator, was among the contestants. The bombardier was staged from a height of 1,500 feet, which, with a high wind, made accuracy difficult. The winners drew purses of $35, $25 and $15.

Another race, this time between the four army ships, was next on the program of events. The large yellow and blue bombers wheeled around three limits, often only a few feet above ground. J. G. Pratt was timed at 14:50, while Lieutenant W. B. McCoy and Lieutenant Albert Boyd were close with times of 14:59 and 15:09, respectively. The race was for a cup.

CLARK UNIVERSITY STUDENTS TO GET DEGREES TUESDAY.

A graduating class of 80 Clark university students will be awarded degrees by M. S. Savage, president of the institution, at 11 o'clock Tuesday morning in the university chapel. The Rev. F. R. Stone, of Chicago, will be principal speaker on the commencement program.

The baccalaureate sermon will be delivered by the Rev. J. W. Haywood, pastor of Morgan college, Baltimore, Md., at 3:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon, it was announced Friday.

DANCERS, SINGERS ADD TO INTEREST OF CRIME PICTURE

Police and crooks aren't the only persons who attract attention in "Alibi," the all-talking mystery melodrama that opens at midnight Sunday with a police best performance at Keith's Georgia theater. It's true that the officers in their struggles with the criminal classes occupy the foreground but a large part of the background consists of groups of singers and dancers.

The night life scenes that are introduced in this picture are many and include some of the best chorus dancing and singing numbers yet placed on the sound screen. Theaters and night clubs, in addition to police stations and more sinister spots, are included in the scenes of the swift action of this thriller.

Tickets for the midnight show are on sale now at the theater box office and any police officer can provide the pasted-on. Lieutenant G. R. Jones, who is in charge of the ticket sale, Friday reported that the parade of the police hand through downtown streets Friday noon considerably stimulated the already rapid sale of the tickets. A capacity house is expected.

City's Financial Condition Called Excellent in Report Made by City Comptroller

Assets of Atlanta Are $62,718,277.50 With Liabilities of $23,164,110 According to 1928 Sheet.

Atlanta's financial condition was listed as excellent Friday in the annual report of B. Graham West, city comptroller, who placed assets of the city at $62,718,277.50 and liabilities at $23,164,110. The report is the 1928 sheet just compiled.

Available assets of the city, which include cash, outstanding bonds, sinking funds and trust funds, total $8,292,513.02, while fixed assets carried as land, buildings, franchises and equipment are $54,425,764.48, the report shows.

Of the total liabilities of the city there is $18,545,100 in outstanding bonds. The assets show a balance of $39,554,117.13 listed as general surplus over the liabilities.

City-Owned Land.

Land owned by the city totals $6,749,659.18 in value, the statement of fixed assets shows. Building total $10,551,265.52. Equipment, franchises and personal property of the city is valued at $37,124,759.78. Under this section the largest item is permanent street paving, totaling $11,031,029.91. Equipment of the waterworks department is placed at $8,891,348.32, while the waterworks franchise is included at $2,500,000.

School department property is valued at $1,232,244.98 for land, $6,504,284.21 for buildings, and $1,001,835.73 for equipment, making a total of $8,738,469.92.

Bridges and underpasses form another important item in the fixed assets sheet, totaling $2,437,595.29.

Disbursements of the city during 1929 are listed in the comptroller's statement as they were made public in January, showing a total outlay of $16,113,547.79. The largest item in this total was $4,883,577.72 total for educational purposes, chiefly for the public schools. A considerable portion of this expenditure was bond funds used for new school buildings.

The second largest item was $2,737,518.07 for streets and highways, including $1,556,960.26 for bridges, most of which was spent on the Central avenue and Pryor street viaducts.

Year's Revenue $15,293,138.

Receipts of $15,293,138.51 included $5,934,295.50 from general taxation, $1,776,516.80 from water receipts and $3,190,505.19 from loans and sale of bonds.

Assessed valuation of real estate in Atlanta in 1928 was listed as $292,116,619, while personal property and motorization were listed at $100,669,223, making a total of $392,785,842.

A comparison of total municipal collections from all sources over a four-year period show the 1928 receipts to be slightly less than the 1927 total of $17,671,206.46, when a total of $4,555,905.77 in bonds were sold. The 1928 collections were considerably greater, however, than the 1926 total of $13,608,043.89, the 1925 total of $13,743,904.17 and the 1924 total of $13,380,639.64.

Disbursement comparisons over the same period show 1928 considerably in the lead, as follows: 1928, $16,113,547.79; 1927, $14,701,512.18; 1926, $13,792,556.22; 1925, $13,911,900.86; 1924, $14,073,596.67.

ITALIAN TRIBE REVOLT CRUSHED, OFFICIALS THINK

Tripoli, May 31.—(AP)—Italian authorities tonight believed they have crushed the rebellion of tribesmen under Mohammed Bey Hag Hassan, by a major engagement in which 454 were killed on both sides. The battle was fought in the Tripolitan desert on May 29 and was described in a bulletin issued tonight.

Several thousand men engaged in the combat which came as the climax of a series of minor engagements between the Italian troops and the rebel tribesmen. The communiqué said that 430 rebels were killed, several hundred wounded and many taken prisoner. The Italian casualties of 24 dead and 77 wounded included several officers.

WOMEN'S CLUB PROTEST OUTDOOR ADVERTISING

New Type of Education Urged by Speaker as Session Closes.

Symposium, Mass., May 31.—(AP)—The thirteenth annual biennial council of the General Federation of Women's Clubs finished its business sessions here tonight after passing a resolution protesting against the use of landscapes for advertising and urging the restriction of all outdoor advertising to commercial districts. An additional resolution recommending that clubwomen give consideration to those firms which "do not desecrate the landscape with advertising" was passed by the council.

Mrs. John C. Campbell, of Brattleboro, N. C., spoke to the members of the federation on the need for adult elementary education.

She advocated a new type of school in the lead, as follows: 1928, $16,113,547.79; 1927, $14,701,512.18; 1926, $13,792,556.22; 1925, $13,911,900.86; 1924, $14,073,596.67.

Mrs. Campbell, herself, is working with the teachers of her own school, the John C. Campbell folk school, of Brattleboro, in a small mountain community in the extreme southwestern part of North Carolina, to forward this new type of adult education.

During the morning session Mrs. Eugene B. Lawson, an American Indian princess of Tulsa, Okla., presided just long enough to speak on Indian affairs and urged the women to subscribe liberally to a fund to put more teachers at the Indian reservations. Mrs. Lawson is a daughter of the Delaware tribe.

Five thousand dollars was subscribed from the floor at the call of Mrs. John P. Sippel, of Baltimore, Md., president of the federation, when she told the members that without a subscription the Federation News would be forced out of existence in July. The $5,000 raised today would keep the magazine going through the summer, she said.

The business sessions closed today and members of the federation will go to Boston tomorrow for their final luncheon and reception.

It was announced that the biennial session of the federation would be held at Denver, Colo., in 1930.

Pretty Wife To Be Tried In Mate's Death

Americus, Ga., May 31.—(Special.) Mrs. Idell Grantham, 30, and pretty, will go on trial in Sumter superior court at Americus Monday, charged with the murder of her husband, Oscar Grantham. It is alleged by the state that Mrs. Grantham killed her husband while he slept, and that he did not commit suicide, as the defense claims.

The case is the first upon the criminal docket, and it is expected the trial will consume at least all day. Judge James A. Hixon and R. L. LeSueur represent Mrs. Grantham and the prosecution will be conducted by Hollis Fort, solicitor-general.

Another case also set for trial Monday is that of the state versus John DeLoach, white, charged with the murder of his wife in Americus about a month ago.

VENEZUELA HAS NEW PRESIDENT FOR 7-YEAR TERM

Caracas, Venezuela, May 31.—(AP)—For the first time in nearly a quarter of a century Venezuela has a president-elect other than Juan Vicente Gomez.

Dr. Juan Bautista, Perez, president of the federal high court of cassation and temporary president of the republic, was elected president by congress yesterday for the seven-year term expiring in 1936.

General Gomez, after nearly 25 years as Venezuela's chief executive, afforded general surprise May 4, when he declined re-election for another seven-year term.

Arnold Assails Issue of Bonds For Good Roads

Declaring that issuance of bonds for the purpose of building roads in Georgia would lead inevitably to disaster, Reuben Arnold, Atlanta attorney, in addressing the meeting of the Atlanta Motor Club at the Ansley hotel Friday afternoon, urged a one cent increase in the present gasoline tax as a means of obtaining sufficient money for this purpose without going into debt.

Addition of this tax would make available approximately $14,000,000 a year for the purpose of road construction, a sum actually in excess of what could be used if the $100,000,000 in bonds were authorized, he told the members of the club. The speaker pointed out that it has taken 52 years to reduce the bonded indebtedness of the state from $10,000,000 in 1877 to $5,000,000 in 1929 and added that one bond was issued for roads, this action would open the floodgates for bond issues for other purposes.

An additional feature of the meeting was a brief talk by Senator Newborn Wright on activities of the state legislature.

It was announced that a list of candidates for the women automobile drivers' school is being compiled and all present were urged to send the names of women automobile drivers to the club.

ATLANTIC FLIERS HOPE TO START FLIGHTS SUNDAY

Old Orchard, Maine, May 31.—(AP)—A take-off of the Green Flash for Rome or the Yellow Bird for Paris earlier than Sunday seemed improbable today in the face of weather reports from Dr. James H. Kimball, meteorologist of the New York weather bureau.

For the next 24 hours at least, the New York forecaster reported, increasingly poor conditions will prevail over the north Atlantic. He advised against either expedition starting on its long and hazardous journey.

Armeno Lotfi, French sportsman, sponsor, co-pilot and radio operator of the Yellow Bird, was conferring with Dr. Kimball in New York city. He expected to return here by air in three hours should the conditions improve.

His two companions, Rene Le Fevre and Jean Assolant, continued with their grooming of the big Bernard monoplane. They are testing a new mixture of benzol and gasoline in the tank.

Captain Lewis A. Yancey and Roger G. Williams, pilot, took advantage of the delay to obtain much-needed rest. Their plane was in readiness for flight should weather conditions make a take-off feasible.

U. S. POSTAL CLERK ON WAY TO MIAMI TO STAND TRIAL

Paul Getchall, wanted in Miami, on a charge of falsifying government records and embezzlement of postal funds, has been arrested in Bethlehem, Pa., and is being taken back to stand trial, according to word received here from Post Office Inspector Ward by Post Office Inspector in Charge Joe P. Johnston.

Getchall, a former post office clerk in Miami, was arrested in December, 1927, indicted by a grand jury and released under bond. It was stated, and then failed to make his appearance in court.

ONE KILLED, THREE FATALY INJURED BY AN EXPLOSION

Elkton, Md., May 31.—(AP)—One man was killed and three probably fatally injured this afternoon by an explosion in the mixing room of a fireworks company near here.

A number of other workers including several women, apparently escaped uninjured.

Harry Brown, truck driver, was the man killed while three others are in the hospital not expected to live.

Brown was unloading chemicals from a truck into the mixing room when the blast occurred. Officials did not know whether the explosion was on the truck or in the mixing building itself.

Allen Dickerson, 34; Vernice Jones, 38, and John Gilbert, 21, were not badly injured but were expected to live.

A dozen girls, employed in the plant, were slightly injured by glass flying from windows shattered by the blast. Fire, which followed the explosion, was quickly extinguished.

DES MOINES TRUSTEES LOSE COURT BATTLE

First Step To Close School Open Under Injunction Draws Judge's Ire.

Des Moines, Iowa, May 31.—(AP)—Des Moines university trustees today lost the first step in a court battle to obtain control of the Baptist fund-mental institution, Judge Frank S. Shankland overruled their motion to dismiss a temporary injunction under which the school has been operating since May 13.

He announced, however, that the writ would not be made permanent until after another hearing, date for which has not been set. Students obtained the injunction May 13 after Dr. T. T. Shields, president of the board of trustees, ordered the school closed because of student riots.

Although they had won temporary victory today, the undergraduates still were uncertain as to whether the trustees would recognize their credits for work done while the school has been open in violation of the board's mandate. Seniors especially were wondering whether they will receive diplomas of graduation next Tuesday.

Judge Shankland refused a request of Dr. Shields' attorneys that he modify his decree to show that it is not intended to interfere with the trustees' legal rights. They asserted the board could delay granting of diplomas and credits until it completes investigation of the student riots.

"If this board of trustees," the judge said, "is competent to determine who shall be issued diplomas and who shall have credits, it ought to be competent to know what is meant by the terms of the temporary injunction granted."

"Let us wait until somebody tries to interfere with its terms, then we will see what is meant in the wording of the writ."

ENGINEER KILLED IN TRAIN WRECK

Campoleone, Italy, May 31.—(AP)—An engineer was killed and seven railway men injured, two of them seriously, when both locomotives of a Rome-to-Naples train were derailed here last night. No passengers were injured, but the baggage, postal and dining cars were badly battered.

A strongly fortified insurgent camp was located by airplanes and a battalion of infantry, two cavalry regiments and an artillery unit by the federalists to attack it. It was said last night that after two days fighting the infantry protected by the artillery gradually had advanced while the rebels had withdrawn to their last fortified line in the mountains.

BITTER FIGHTING BETWEEN MEXICAN FORCES REPORTED

Mexico City, May 31.—(AP)—Special dispatches to Excelsior from Guadalajara today said that military headquarters there had received reports of a bitter battle between federal and irregular rebels at Cerro de la Villa which began Wednesday noon and still was under way at dusk yesterday.

A strongly fortified insurgent camp was located by airplanes and a battalion of infantry, two cavalry regiments and an artillery unit by the federalists to attack it. It was said last night that after two days fighting the infantry protected by the artillery gradually had advanced while the rebels had withdrawn to their last fortified line in the mountains.

F. E. BRANCH, ANDREW COLLEGE HEAD, RESIGNS

Macon, Ga., May 31.—(AP)—The Rev. J. A. Smith, secretary of a special committee of the board of trustees of Andrew Female college at Cuthbert, today announced F. E. Branch had resigned as president of the institution.

The special committee has been called for a session next Tuesday to confer with Bishop W. B. Beauchamp of the Methodist Episcopal church, south, at which time a successor will be considered.

President Branch submitted his resignation to be effective July 1. He had been president 11 years. The school was founded nearly 100 years ago, and has an enrollment of 125.

REPARATIONS HITS ANOTHER SNAG

Paris, May 31.—(AP)—The barometer of the reparations conference rose rapidly today with agreements on some of the German conditions but dropped a bit tonight when it was learned that the German government had not, as expected, named a plenipotentiary to negotiate with the Belgians on the redemption of German paper marks imposed on that country during the war.

Preparations with the accelerated pace of the conference during the last few days, the experts had worked until midnight last night and this morning disposed of several of the minor German conditions. Later they consented to lifting the lien on German railways, which under the Dawes plan had served as a guarantee for interest payments on the Dawes loan. They also came to an agreement with

The experts had supposed that they would avoid the question of German marks in Belgium by inducing the two interested governments to negotiate for a direct settlement. This evening, however, in the absence of the Belgian plenipotentiary, the German plenipotentiary, Herr von Helldorf, named a delegate for that purpose, and the Belgians reiterated their determination not to sign any reparations agreement unless the mark question was first settled by the plenipotentiaries by the experts or by the governments.

The Belgians demand figures 25,000,000 gold marks annually for 37

Ambassador Judah said today that he had nothing to say regarding the case nor would he affirm or deny reports that he had received a note from Secretary Stimson asking immediate action for governmental restitution of properties which Mr. Barrow claims were confiscated.

According to reports the Stimson note was couched in strong terms with the definite request that Mr. Barrow's main claim, known as the Manglar, comprising 32 city blocks of

TRADE WITH CHICAGO SHOWN ON INCREASE

Southeastern Branch of Association of Commerce Reports Consistent Growth.

The shifting of trade channels westward and a steady growth in commercial and financial relations between the midwest and the southeast, are outstanding features of the report submitted Friday to the Chicago Association of Commerce on the activities of its southeastern branch during the past 12 months.

The report is based on a trade survey covering a number of cities in the southeast, especially as affecting the Chicago and midwestern markets. As a result of these investigations, it is stated that the inter-regional traffic between the two sections has probably had a greater growth during the past 15 months than in any previous similar period. This expansion is said to apply not only to purchases by southeastern merchants, but as well to sales made in the middle west by southern factories.

It is pointed out that during the past 12 months there has been an increase of 25 per cent in the number of branches of Chicago houses located in the southeast, accepting the count made in certain selected cities as a basis.

MOVIE ORDINANCE HEARING SUNDAY TO BE POSTPONED

Absence from the city Friday of Alderman G. Everett Millican, chairman of a special sub-committee, which has slated a meeting for 2:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon to study a proposed revision of existing motion picture ordinances, left the date of the session unsettled following announcement of Councilman George Lyle that he would not attend the Sunday gathering.

Mr. Millican will return to the city this morning, when he probably will set the date for the meeting. The committee was called to study the proposed revision, in order to be ready to make recommendations as to certain changes which have been asked by operators of large theaters in Atlanta. Theater owners have declared that certain provisions are unfair to them, pointing especially to one making it mandatory to have an operator for each machine used.

Other members of the sub-committee in addition to Mr. Millican and Mr. Lyle are Alderman Robert E. Gann, chairman of the electric lights committee of city council to which the ordinance was referred when it was submitted to council; and Pat Hendricks, city electrician.

ATLANTA GROUPS ASKED TO AID FIGHT FOR SOLDIERS' HOME

Predicting early approval of the Harris resolution carrying an appropriation of $2,000,000 for establishment of a national home for soldiers and sailors in the southeast, Sam C. Crane, secretary of the special committee which for the past four years has sponsored the project "in or near Atlanta," called on civic organizations to co-operate fully in the effort to place the institution here.

He declared that the initial allocation is but a starter and that it will take from $2,000,000 to $6,000,000 to complete the project. "The Georgia general assembly was the first and only one to pass a resolution asking that the home be located in this state in or near Atlanta," Mr. Crane said. "This was done March 3, 1926, at a special session of the legislature. We feel gratified at the united support which the assembly has given Spanish-American War veterans, and in compliment to them are preparing a mammoth barbecue to be given during the month of July at Lakewood park."

COURTLAND STREET PAVING APPROVED BY COUNCIL BODY

Decision to pave Courtland street from Forrest avenue to North avenue, to set curbs back at intersections thus giving more freedom to motorists and recommendation that bids for two street paving projects totaling $15,835.80 be accepted were outstanding actions Friday afternoon of the streets committee of city council.

Councilman Harry York, of the sixth ward, sponsored the Courtland avenue paving project at a meeting prior to the regular streets committee session. The street improvements are Haas avenue from McPherson avenue to Fair street and McPherson avenue from Patterson avenue to East Side avenue, a total of 7,131 square yards. Councilman Charles L. Chosewood, chairman of the committee, presided. Recommendations of the committee will go to city council Monday for approval.

ROAD CONTRACTS HELD UP PENDING HEARING ON JUNE 8

The state highway board will give no further consideration to letting contracts for new road construction in Georgia until injunction proceedings now pending are settled at a hearing to be held June 8, at Commerce, it was announced following a session of the board held Friday at East Point, offices of the highway department.

Injunction proceedings were brought by officials of Walton county who are seeking to restrain the board from making contracts for $4,000,000 in new roads on the ground that such action is illegal in that Walton county and the eighth road district have not received their fair allotment of roads under the proposed contractual program.

At the board meeting Friday contractors who had submitted bids were permitted to withdraw such bids. They were told that they could submit bids again after the litigation is settled at the hearing at Commerce.

J. E. LOGUE APPOINTED
POSTAL MANAGER HERESuperintendent of Florida
Division Succeeds the Late
G. W. Ribble.John T. Logue, a native of Gibson, and superintendent of the Florida district office of the Postal Tele-graph Cable Company since 1925, has taken up his duties as manager of the southern division here, a territory comprising 11 states, succeeding the late George W. Ribble in this position.
His promotion to what is considered one of the most important positions in the Postal Company service is regarded as a high tribute to his ability. He has risen from the ranks by steady advancement.
His first experience in the telegraph field came at his home town Gibson, and he later moved to Charlotte, N. C., as an operator. His future travels took him to Augusta, to Birmingham and then back to Augusta.
Awarded a scholarship to the University of Georgia he matriculated there in 1906 for the purpose ofstudying medicine, working as an operator at the postal office at night.
While his work at the University was said to be entirely satisfactory, he decided to abandon it and concentrate his efforts along traffic and electrical lines.
He later became traffic chief and night chief operator at Augusta. He was transferred to Jacksonville as chief operator in December, 1919, and held that position until April, 1922, when he was promoted to the position of manager of the Jacksonville office. He served as superintendent of the Florida district from 1925 until he was transferred here.
The postal company also announced Friday that J. O. Young, local manager, has been appointed superintendent of the fifth district of the southern division with headquarters in Charlotte and that he will be succeeded by J. E. Johnson, local manager at Raleigh.3 INDICTED IN SERIES OF SAFE ROBBERIESAn indictment charging burglary was returned by the Fulton county grand jury Friday against three men alleged to have been in possession of a number of burglary tools when they were arrested by the police at Whitehall and Hunter streets last Saturday night. Wheeler also was indicted separately for alleged possession of safe-cracking tools.The indictment naming the three men jointly alleges the trio a few weeks ago burglarized the store of Finchley, Inc., in Whitehall street, and, although frightened away by the police, succeeded in obtaining about $15 in cash.NAVAL CLASS IS RECOMMENDED
AT THOMASVILLEThomasville, Ga., May 31.—(Special.)—Superintendent B. B. Broughton, of the Thomasville city schools, has recommended to the city board of education a manual training course, carrying the same academic subjects as required in the home economics course, but to be taken in lieu of the home economics for a four years period. The course will be opened to the boys and girls of the schools when the proposed new school buildings have been completed, and outfitted with the necessary equipment for manual training.City Hall Flag at Half Mast
In Tribute to S. A. Wardlaw,
Veteran Member of CouncilCouncilman From First Ward Dies Unexpectedly—Had Been Ill Two Months.Sam A. Wardlaw, veteran first ward councilman and Atlanta civic leader, died at 3:30 o'clock Friday morning at St. Joseph's infirmary, where he has been confined for two months. His death came unexpectedly to his friends as he was believed to be convalescing well beyond the danger point following a stroke of paralysis several weeks ago which at that time aggravated his already critical condition.The flag atop the city hall was at half mast Friday in tribute to the veteran member of council, and Mayor
I. N. Ragsdale issued the following statement:"The death of Councilman Wardlaw is a distinct loss to the city government of Atlanta. As a member of council he was conservative, constructive and closely attentive to duty. He rendered valuable service to his ward and the city."A member of a number of important committees of council, including the municipal markets, police, electric lights, benevolence and pensions, he served a number of terms as councilman from the first ward during which time he championed many laudable movements and introduced numerous valuable ordinances in council.He was one of the city's oldest railroad men in years of service. Thirty-five years ago he was appointed yardmaster of the Central of Georgia railroad and was made general yardmas-ter in 1896. In 1909 he retired to enter the real estate business, but returned to his former field in 1919 as night station master of the Terminal station, in which capacity he served until his death.Mr. Wardlaw resided at 343 Chapel street. Surviving are cousins, H. L. Reynolds, Mrs. George McVey, Mrs. H. C. Wells, Mrs. Harry Higgin and Mrs. Ethel Milligan. Funeral arrangements will be announced later by Barclay & Brandon.

NEW MARQUETTE CAR
TO MAKE BOW TODAYBuick dealers throughout the country today will display the Marquette, a new six produced and distributed by the Buick Motor Company. This car, which is the ninth in the General Motors line and which will sell in the medium price field, is offered in six models—a two-door sedan, four-door sedan, business coupe, sport coupe, a roadster and a touring car.
The Marquette is an exceptionally large car for its price class, having a wheel base of 114 inches. The six cylinder 1.6-litred motor and the crank shafts are cast in one integral unit. The has a bore and stroke of 3.1-8-inch by 4.5-8-inch and develops 67.5 maximum h.p. horsepower. Buick officials say the Marquette has remarkably quick acceleration and a maximum speed up in the seventies.All models are designed along low-swing, rakish lines. The bodies are built by Fisher and finished in Duco color combinations that follow the present fashion trends. The radiator is deep with a narrow chromium plated rim that balances with the chromium plated hub caps. The wheels are sturdy and carry large section 28x3.25 balloon tires.The Marquette has a new non-glare Fisher VV type windshield which sets at an angle of seven degrees from the perpendicular and reflects all glare, whether from rear, front or sides, below the driver's line of vision. Other features include large internal expanding Duo-Servo four-wheel brakes, adjustable steering wheel, adjustable driver's seat, built-in bumper mountings and all chromium plated outside hardware. The soft, but durable, mohair upholstery is waterproof, impregnated under a new process with a rubber solution.PACKAGE IS SENT

STANDARD OIL COMPANY
INCORPORATED IN KENTUCKYNEGRO IS INDICTED
BY FULTON JURY
AS PURSE SNATCHERThe grand jury Friday returned an indictment against Henry Otis White, a negro, charging robbery of Mrs. J. L. Guerin, 859 Pulliam street, S. W., of $814 in cash and two diamond rings, valued at $400.
The true bill alleges that White snatched Mrs. Guerin's purse from under her arm as she was locking her motor car in front of the municipal market in Edgewood avenue Saturday night.The negro was arrested early this week when the police were attracted by his display of new and flashy clothing and an apparent abundant supply of cash. He has been identified by Mrs. Guerin, and $100 found on his person returned to her. Thus far the police have been unable to find any trace of the rings.

Welcome, Georgia Bar Association!

First among several notable gatherings scheduled for the early weeks of June, is the meeting of the GEORGIA BAR ASSOCIATION, which convenes today at the Biltmore hotel.

That the city finds pleasure in the assembling of keen minds and progressive ideas is evident. The cordiality of her invitations has resulted in the well known name, "Convention City."

Rich's joins heartily in Atlanta's welcome. We hope that the members of the Georgia Bar Association will use our store in whatever way will promote their interests and pleasure.

TWO PROMINENT CEREMONIES HERALD MONTH OF BRIDES

Miss Sarah Smith Weds Brian Merry Saturday

Aprons of June, two prominent weddings are scheduled for the first day of this merry month of brides and roses. At 8 o'clock this evening Miss Sarah Falconer Smith, popular member of Atlanta society, will plight her troth to Brian Merry, scion of a distinguished Augusta family, at the North Avenue Presbyterian church. The occasion will be a fashionable gathering of Atlantans and out-of-town guests, the latter to be entertained with members of the bridal party at an informal reception immediately after the marriage service at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Frank Smith, on Anjaco road. This morning at 11:30 o'clock Miss Katherine Fitzgerald Catchings, daughter of Mrs. F. P. Catchings, will wed Henry Hall Ware, Jr., at the Druid Hills Methodist church. The youthful bride will leave directly after the ceremony for a motor trip to New Orleans and interesting resorts on the Gulf coast. Other social functions planned for today include parties honoring future brides, whose weddings will feature the bridal month of June.

Mrs. I. W. Cousins was hostess at a bridge-tennis Friday afternoon at her home on Clairmont avenue in Decatur. The guests were: Mesdames W. S. Gardner, Murphy Candler, Herbert Rawlings, Perry Mullinax, Stanley Hastings, E. G. Wilson, Joe Elder, Grady Estes, John Stone, Charles Bothwell, Terrell Stewart, William Crowell, Perry Jackson, Hugh Wilson, Ira Hardin, Maynard Sanders, Hiram Allen, Alfred Branch, Miss Mollie Bennett, Louise McCarty, Virginia Skeen, Velma Barnett, Evelyn Barnett, Frances Campbell, Maude Woodward, Eugene Cunningham, Anne Webb, Isabel Wilson, Pearl Buchanan, Mary Ansley, Barbara Metz, Helen Williams, Louise Fielding, Edna George, Sally Lindsay and Joe Barry.

Pepper-Crankshaw Invitation Issued

Invitations have been issued by Mrs. Mabel Gentry Pepper to the marriage of her daughter, Miss Mary Pepper, to Charles Weir Crankshaw Saturday afternoon, June 8, at 5:30 o'clock at St. Luke's Episcopal church. Rev. N. R. E. Moore, rector of St. Luke's, will read the impressive marriage service before a large assemblage of prominent Atlantans. Miss Pepper will be given in marriage by her uncle, James Clay Gentry, and will have as her maid of honor her sister, Miss Gentry Pepper. Miss Elizabeth Crankshaw, sister of the groom, and Miss Margaret Woodside, young cousin of the bride-elect, will act as bridesmaids. Mr. Crankshaw will act as his best man, and his close friends, Ragan Jones and Horace Powers, as groomsmen, with Dr. Caldwell Holliday, cousin of the groom, and Thomas Rice Gentry, uncle of the bride-elect, as ushers. Mrs. Joseph C. Crankshaw, the groom-elect's mother, will entertain at a reception at her home on Peachtree place immediately following the ceremony.

Mrs. Johnson Honors Mrs. W. J. McKenna

Mrs. Edwin Johnson was hostess at luncheon Friday at her home on Peachtree road honoring Mrs. William J. McKenna, of Boston, who is spending several months in Atlanta.

Mrs. Jones Entertains At Her Home

A meeting of the Twentieth Century Coteries, featuring the music of Greig, was held at the residence of Mrs. William Cole Jones in Decatur last Thursday. The artists contributing to the program were Miss Minnie Hecker, soprano; Miss Marguerite Cooper, pianist and violinist, with Mrs. Paul Bryan and Mrs. Cooper acting as accompanists. Miss Hecker's lovely voice was especially suited to the delicate and charming Norwegian melodies which she executed with especial grace. Miss Marguerite Cooper's interpretation of a Greig sonata showed fine musicianship, while her violin numbers were greatly enjoyed. Mrs. Bryan and Mrs. Cooper filled the different roles of accompanists with much ability and sympathy.

Miss Dabney Weds W. H. O'Donnell In Hollywood, Calif.

A recent marriage of interest here is that of Virginia Dabney, of Atlanta, to William Henry O'Donnell, of New York city, which was solemnized Friday evening, May 31, at the First Methodist church in Hollywood, Calif. The bride was given in marriage by her father, Mr. W. H. Dabney, wearing a corsage bouquet of orchids and lilies of the valley. Her bridesmaid, Miss Marian Dabney, was maid of honor. The bridesmaid were Misses Frances Widrig, Marie Valle, Louise Lorch and Elsie Farron. The best man was Frank Murphy. Larry Ceballos, a close friend of the bride and groom, gave the former in marriage. After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride. Later a buffet supper was given in honor of the young couple at the beautiful Beverly Hills home of Mr. and Mrs. Larry Ceballos. Mr. and Mrs. O'Donnell are now at home at 1824 Grace avenue, in Hollywood.

The bride's family is well known in the south. On her father's side she is descended from one of the oldest families in Virginia. Her mother, Mrs. O'Donnell, is a daughter of the late Mr. Dabney Thomas and sister of Miss Marian Dabney. She attended Washington, D. C., where she was a member of the Theta Beta Chi society. She is a graduate of the University of Washington, where she was a member of the Kappa Sigma fraternity. He is now connected with Warner Brothers' studio, where he is a prominent young director.

Weak After Operation

"About five months ago, following an operation for appendicitis I did not gain strength enough to be up and about. My mother and sister advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I have taken five bottles and it has helped me to get strong so I can do my own housework now. I have recommended it to several friends who have been weak and run-down."—Mrs. Oscar Ottem, Box 474, Thief River Falls, Minn.

BURGESS CHILDREN'S STORIES

THE GREBES LEAVE THE SMILING POOL.

BY THORNTON W. BURGESS.

The Great World calls; the young must heed;
Prepare them for their every need.
—Old Mother Nature.

Peter Rabbit arrived at the Smiling Pool very early one morning to pay his respects to the Grebes. He found Dipper and Mrs. Grebe and the six young Grebes looking as if something important were going on. Dipper's bright eyes spied Peter at once.

"Oh, there you are!" cried Dipper. "I was afraid you were not going to see us again."

"Why not?" cried Peter, looking very much surprised.

"Because," replied Dipper, "we are leaving today."

"Leaving?" cried Peter. "Where are you leaving for? And what are you leaving for?"

"We are leaving for the Big River, and we are leaving because the Smiling Pool is too small a place for us now," replied Dipper. "It is time the children became acquainted with big water. Besides, it will be safer for them."

"Are you going to stay on the Big River?" Peter asked.

"We shall probably stay there until it is time to move along in the fall," replied Dipper. "You see, the youngsters have got to have a chance to try their wings and they cannot do it here. Besides, there are not fish enough here for a big family. Six growing children require a lot of food. On the Big River, if we do not find it in one place, we can move along to another. Good by, Peter."

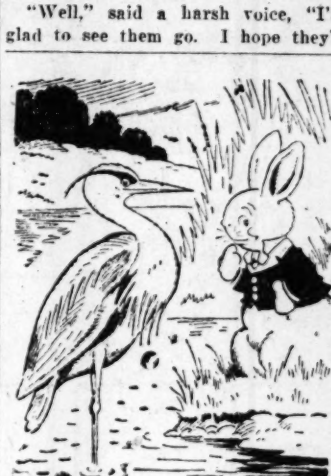

"Good by," replied Peter. "I'm sorry you're leaving."

"Good by," called Mrs. Grebe. "Good by," replied Peter. "I hope nothing will happen to your children."

"Good by," called the six little Grebes.

"Good by, good by," called Peter.

With Mr. Grebe in the lead, they swam across the Smiling Pool and entered the Laughing Brook on their way to the Big River. Peter had a lonely feeling as he saw them disappear. He was sorry to see them go. Yes, sir, he was sorry to see them go.

"Where are those Grebes?" he demanded.

never come back again." It was Rattles the Kingfisher.

"Why?" demanded Peter.

"They ate too many fish," replied Rattles grumpily. "It was getting so nobody else could get any over here."

Longlegs the Heron alighted on the edge of the Smiling Pool. He stood with his long neck stretched up to its full height, looking this way and that way. "Where are those Grebes?" he demanded.

"Gone," replied Rattles the Kingfisher. "They've gone down to the Big River and they won't be back."

"That's the best news I've heard for some time," declared Longlegs. "Now some of the rest of us may be able to get a few fishes once in a while. I hope they'll never come back."

"I don't!" spoke up Peter Rabbit. "You don't have to catch fish for a living," replied Longlegs dryly.

FIBRE MARKET FOUND, BRITISHER DECLARES

New York, May 31.—(AP)—Dr. C. J. Hedley-Thornton, British analytical and research chemist, who last December announced the discovery of an artificial cotton made from a newly-found fiber, today announced he has concluded negotiations for the growth and marketing of the fiber in the United States.

The announcement was made before he sailed for England tonight on the liner Majestic after a two weeks' visit during which he conferred with financiers and leaders of the cotton industry and visited southern cotton centers.

He said that between 60,000 and 70,000 acres of land, chiefly in Florida, will be sown with the fiber plant—originally found in a bird's nest in British Guiana and developed by the crossing and re-crossing with chemical treatment of no fewer than 85 different species.

He said the entire American output has already been contracted for by American spinners, who will need to change machinery only slightly to produce and sell cheaper a product which will be to the cotton industry what rayon has been to the silk market.

Dr. Hedley-Thornton, however, declined to say specifically where the fiber would be grown, or to identify the spinners who have agreed to use it. He is returning to the United States in July, and until that time he declined to amplify his statement.

At a call meeting of the officers and ways and means committee of the Kle Club on May 28, it was decided to conduct a restaurant at the South-eastern Fair this fall and plans are being perfected to make this an annual affair with the club.

THE UNKISSED BRIDE

By BERTA RUCK

SYNOPSIS

Joy Harrison, living in London and working for Dr. Rex Travers in Harley street, is crushed by a letter from her fiancé, Geoffrey Ford, a well-known novelist, asking to be released from the engagement. Perseus, who has been offered a practice with a comfortable villa in the south of France, which he cannot take on, and he suggests that he recommend Rex for it. The only hitch to the plan is that they want a married doctor not a bachelor. To his partner's suggestion that he marry and take up the new post, Rex turns a deaf ear.

Joy, who has been listening to the doctor's colloquy, suddenly sees a method of escape for her and asks Rex if he will marry her on a business arrangement. The doctor is startled by the suggestion and finally asks her why she made it. She tells him that she is badly in need of another job, although her real reason is to have Geoffrey read of her engagement in the London papers.

The doctor broods over the change his altered circumstances will have on his young nephew and ward, Percival Arthur Travers. Finally he decides to take Joy at her word and on a strictly business basis. Immediately after Rex, Joy, Geoffrey and Arthur leave for the south of France.

INSTALLMENT XXX.

LUNCH A DEUX.

It was Percival Arthur's habit to disappear until lunch, for which he was accustomed to turn up ravenous, cheerful, and punctual.

Today he was late. Joy came home without him.

"Where's the boy?" Rex Travers asked when he came in, heated from his morning's hard round. It was a glorious day—for those who could spread it in the sun or under some olive shade far up the mountains. "He's outrageously unpunctual."

"I expect he lost count of the time," Joy said, smiling. Joy had not been out in the glare; very cool she looked in a white silk shift of a thing with a jade green belt, one of those soft silk shoulder ties and a pocket initial to match. Not unlike a lotus she looked. "It's cooler inside than out."

"Lunch is on the table, madam," announced Mary. Typically English, typically Harley street in trim black and white uniform, she stood aside by the green sun-blinded windows to let her master and this young new mistress pass in. They set down opposite to each other at the table attractively arranged with Madame Jeane's choice table linen and glass, with some of Granny Travers' wedding present old silver, and with Joy's center pyramid of roses.

This, by the way, was the couple's first meal a deux.

"For once," thought the sympathetic Mary, "they've not themselves to themselves without that young limb of a Percival Arthur."

The conversation began, however, on a tenderly intimate note.

For when the mistress remarked that the boy was sure to be in directly, the master said (meaning to be sarcastic, Mary noticed), that women had a habit of saying they were sure when they had no reason to suppose that a thing was so. Then, into the pause that followed there rose from the kitchen, as clear as clear, floating in through the window, the voice of "that Melony" warbling her French version of "I want to be happy, but I can't be happy until you are happy, too!"

The worst of Melony's voice was that one had to listen, though Joy, while Travers took a deep draught of the iced barley water and lemon, for Joy had taken note that this was his midday drink in Harley street.

From below there was a fresh burst of song; some droopy music hall lyric: "Tu n'as pas su m'aimer."

"Tu n'as pas su m'comprendre!" warbled Melony.

"Pourquoi je t'ai donc..."

"Mary," murmured Joy swiftly, "Yes, madam, I'll tell her."

Travers, eating and looking at Melony's salad, which was crisply cool as the first crush of hoar frost on the lawn, remarked (so as to say something), "I can tell you, when she goes on her Sunday afternoons out to Nice, she rushes to that half with the automatic gramophone euphonics, but herself up there and spends her time after her with those sort of wireless receivers over her ears, listening to one after another of the strident songs on their list."

"Lord, what a way of spending Sundays etc."

"Her idea of enjoyment. I suppose you miss your Sunday flying."

"What? I'm sorry," said Travers, tilting his gold head to the right of the screen of roses. "What did you say, Joy?"

From the other side of the roses Joy repeated that she supposed he missed his flying.

"I do," admitted Travers tersely.

Tech Splits Pa' With Gordon Institute at Barnesville

Barnesville, Ga., May 31.—(Special.)—Tech High won the unofficial 1929 baseball championship of the Georgia Interscholastic Association this afternoon by splitting a double-header with Gorton Institute.

Earlier in the season Tech High had defeated the Gorton Institute in a two-game series which was played today and tomorrow to decide which team would be unofficial champion.

It was impossible to play Saturday and two games were played today. Both had the outstanding records of any team in the association, but the series was not ordered until today.

After Tech High had won the first game, Gorton Institute, which had the outstanding record of any team in the association, but the series was not ordered until today.

At a dinner given the press on the debut of a new automobile, the Marquette, the flapper sister to the Buick, I found myself seated next to a rare character in college and professional baseball.

Jim Riser, now a sales promotion expert and said to be the American champion car-upsetter, was a shortstop for Clemson college back in the gay days when amateur rules were not so strictly observed.

Jim spent his summer vacations playing professional baseball, under an assumed name, for Houston in the Texas league. There he accumulated what possibly is a record for organized baseball.

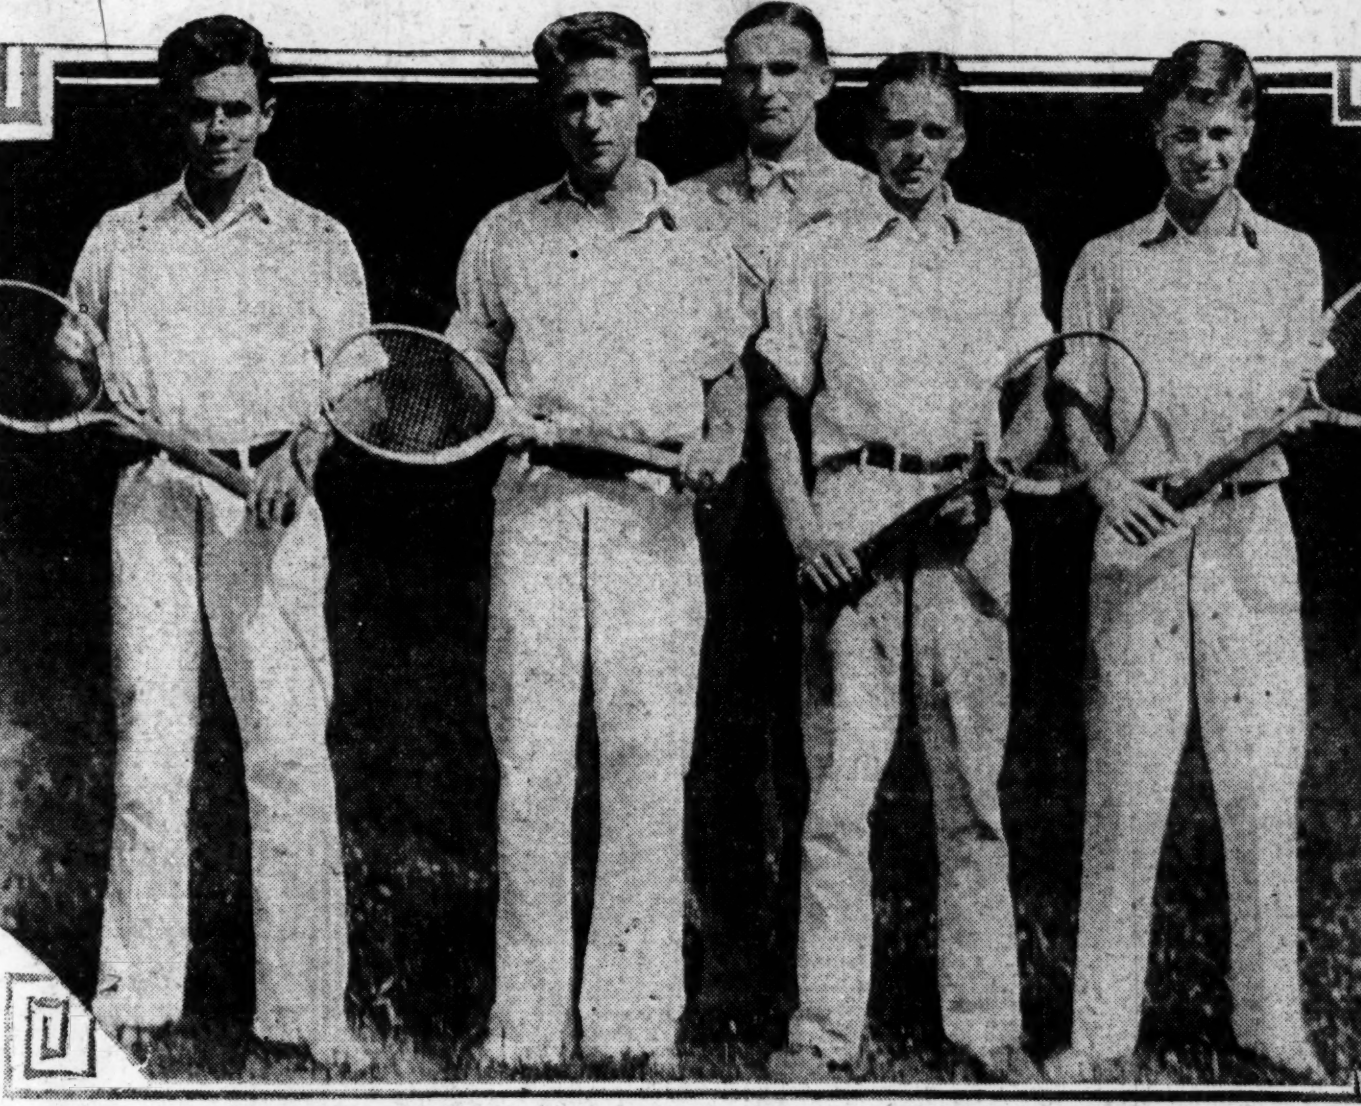

BILL TILDEN, HELEN WILLS WIN AT PARIS

Hunter Leads Borotra as Match Is Called on Account of Darkness.

By Thomas T. Topping.
Associated Press Staff Writer.
Paris, May 31.—(A.P.)—Three American tennis stars joined in a determined effort today to shatter the myth of European supremacy on the courts of the quarter final round of the French championship, when the smoke of the day's battles had cleared away, two clean-cut victories had been chalked up for the United States, while the third invader from overseas seemed well on his way to triumph.

Big Bill Tilden and Helen Wills, America's first ranking stars, went into the semi-finals by defeating a pair of Europe's leaders, Baron Humbert de Morpurgo, of Italy, and Helene La Faurie, of France. The tide of the third match seemed to be turning strongly toward a victory for Frank Hunter over Jean Borotra when darkness put an end to the day's play.

Darlington Stars Claim Title

Led by James Halverstadt, young Atlanta net star, the tennis team of Darlington High has swept aside all opposition this season and is making a strong claim for the southern prep school tennis championship. Among the schools that have fallen before the Darlington netmen are U. S. B. and Riverside. Matches with Boys' High and McCallie ended in ties. Darkness halted these matches. They are, from left to right: Meredith Graham, Ned Wilson (captain), Roland Parker (coach), John Lafferty, all of Rome, and James Halverstadt, of Atlanta.

ANDERSON, JR., PROSPECT FOR CRACKER JOB

Shake-Up Due Before Vol Double Bill Here Today.

By Ed Danforth.
Frank Anderson, Jr., Oglethorpe university's star second baseman and shortstop, will sign a Cracker contract today unless some unforeseen hitch develops in negotiations, it was learned last night from R. J. Spiller, Cracker owner.

Signing young Anderson, son of the Oglethorpe athletic director, would be another move in Spiller's wrecking and rebuilding campaign that was inspired by a disastrous two-week campaign. The Crackers rounded it out yesterday in Nashville by losing the fifth game in six played with the Vols, 13 to 1.

Spiller's determination to replace aging, ailing and apathetic veterans with fresh young blood first was manifested in the signing of Bob Parham, Georgia Tech slugger, outfielder, last week. And no doubt it is the dashy way Parham broke into the professional coral that led Spiller to push his deal for young Anderson.

SLOW GAMES

Both the games were slow. The first game took two and one-half hours to play the second although it lasted six innings, required nearly two hours.

Tech High was in even form in the last game and played the second inning with 12-0 runs accounted for the 10 runs.

In the first game, however, the Smithies held the lead beginning to end and were never in danger of being overtaken. Tech High, however, landed on the second inning to get runs. There was no more scoring in the seventh when another Smithies' push drove across five runs, leaving the Smithies with a 10-0 lead.

Dallas scored 24 runs off Jim, alias So-and-So, one day in one inning.

It seems that all the regular pitchers were out of condition, as pitchers often were when schoolboys were 5 cents per copy. The Houston manager called Jim in from shortstop to hurl; nobody else remained with enough eyesight left to locate the plate except the young collegian.

Emergency Looms.

Not since 1925, when practically an entire Atlanta pitching staff was junked in early season, has a Cracker club been so upset with changes in personnel as the current issue.

Dempsey Sets 1st Bout October 1

Chicago, May 31.—(United News.) Jack Dempsey, former heavyweight boxing champion, and more recently in fight promotion occupation, signed a two-year lease for the Coliseum today and announced he would stage his first bout there after October 1.

Silverdale Wins Fifth Straight

New York, May 31.—(A.P.)—E. B. McLean's three-year-old chestnut colt, Silverdale, may never top the money won column but he'll be right in the lead among the leaders in races won when the statistics for the season are compiled. Pitted against six other horses in the St. Matthews purse at Churchill Downs today he accounted for his fifth successive race of the season.

HALL WIER IN P. G. MEET

Birmingham, Ala. 31.—(A.P.)—The elements failed the championship match of a Hall, Birmingham professional, the Birmingham Professional Association tournament here today the Magic City golfer again the title he captured in Mobile last year.

The Old Rascal.

Knute Rockne writes: "It is hard to see how any of the southern teams can hope to beat Georgia Tech next fall. It will be out of the question for Notre Dame to hope to win its game with Georgia Tech, too, for that matter."

ONE MARK BROKEN.

Harlow Rothert, Cardinal all-around star, turned in the day's only record performance when he hurled the 66-pound shot 50 feet 3 inches, eclipsing by two inches the mark of his teammate, Eric Krenz, who did no better than four in today's tests in defense of his title. Krenz, however, set the pace in the discus, while another Cardinal, Leo Kibby, topped the field in the javelin with a fine heave of 204 feet 7 inches.

PENNSY SURPRISES.

Although the trials revealed no team with sufficient strength to menace Stanford's dominating position, Pennsylvania pulled a big surprise by qualifying ten athletes. Lawson Robertson's Quakers clinched second position when a late ruling by officials added Harold Lamberg to the discus qualifiers. One of Lamberg's throws hit a rival marker and was close enough to the qualifying limit to give him a chance in the finals tomorrow.

COLONEL NOT SURE.

The colonel isn't sure about his 1929 football team. He thinks he will have a punter and he will fool around with him a lot. He thinks Bill Spears, who had his name in the papers quite a bit some time back when he was playing for all their men as a half back, is a good one to have.

Four Favorites In Prep Meet

(Stagg Field, Chicago, Ill., May 31.—United News.)—Four teams were looked upon as favorites among preparatory athletes representing 30 states, who were poised tonight for the final events in the 29th annual intercollegiate track and field meet.

AMATEUR TITLES.

Does anyone imagine that the bold Nordic has any earthly idea of LOSING his game here with Georgia Tech next fall? The silence is thunderous.

Pund's Diagnosis.

Peter Pund summed up the Tech situation for next fall concisely the other day. The captain says: "Tech will have a fine first team but reserves will be fewer in number than last season."

John Farrell, Dudley Defeat Irish Pros

Dublin, May 31.—(United News.) John Farrell, American open golf champion, and Ed Dudley, young California professional, won two exhibition matches here today, defeating Dr. McCormack and Michael McDermott, amateurs, 4 and 3, and later beating W. Holley and W. Nolan, Irish pros, 2 and 1.

Hound races which will be run tonight at Dixie Lake at 8:30 o'clock and at the same hour on Tuesday, June 4, and Thursday, June 6, are attracting general attention from sports lovers but from the general public as well because in addition to the incentive furnished by the sport it is announced that the management will make a definite contribution of the gate receipts to the Home for Old Women.

Gridiron 'Raincoat' Test Here June 11

Public demonstration and test of a specially built duck cover for football fields will be made June 11 at Grand Field, it was learned yesterday.

Gridiron 'Raincoat' Test Here June 11

The new gridiron raincoat was designed and made after consultation with W. A. Alexander, head coach of Tech. The new cover is said to be lighter than covers, easier to manipulate and cheaper. Its use a gridiron for several days before big games so rain can leave a muddy field for import.

MRS. VILAS WINS IN SEMI-FINAL

Hot Springs Woman Is Forced to 20th Hole To Win.

Hot Springs, Ark., May 31.—(AP)—Mrs. Jack Vilas, of Hot Springs, by a strong finish to a gruelling contest, won two extra holes before it was decided, today lifted the Arkansas women's golf crown from Miss Clara Woodruff, of Little Rock, in the semi-finals of the annual women's state tournament here.

Miss Woodruff got into trouble on her second shot for the 20th green, and Mrs. Vilas, by consistent golf, won her way into the final tomorrow, she will meet Mrs. F. E. Pharr, of Texarkana, Texas, state champion and former Arkansas titleholder, who easily won her match in the semi-finals, defeating Mrs. George B. Stuart, also of Texarkana.

Mrs. Vilas and Miss Woodruff finished their semi-final round on even terms and on the first extra hole they were both two over the par five.

On the next hole Mrs. Vilas played a steady game while Miss Woodruff finished their semi-final round on even terms and on the first extra hole they were both two over the par five.

Mrs. Vilas was 3 up at the 13th hole but Miss Woodruff rallied to gain one each on the next three to tie the count, which remained so until broken at the 20th hole.

At the 19th, both secured good drives. Mrs. Vilas got a fair second shot while Miss Woodruff rolled her second shot through a bunker on the right. Their third shots were fair, and with the fourth each was on the edge of the green, the two took a couple of putts to halve the hole.

Driving for the 20th, Miss Woodruff's effort was fair. Mrs. Vilas whipped out a long drive. Each of their second shots were good and then Mrs. Vilas sent the ball to within a few yards of the green. Miss Woodruff's shot was to the right in the rough and she was out on her fourth. Mrs. Vilas took two putts and Miss Woodruff three.

European Teams In Quarter-Finals

Paris, May 31.—(United News).—The French Davis cup committee arranged today for the quarter-finals of European zone play, which starts next Tuesday.

Italy, regarded as the strongest of the European challengers, meets Germany, and Czechoslovakia plays Denmark.

Hungary will meet the winner of the matches between Egypt and Holland, while Great Britain plays the winner between South Africa and Sweden.

(The United States will meet the winner of the European zone finals for the right to challenge France for the trophy).

Why Duke Wins.
Phil L'Eglise postcards from Durham, N. C.: "If a magnificent looking school makes for championship teams, they never will get Duke university out of the conference flight. This campus is a wow."

TITLE IS WON BY JOE BROWN

Lowry, of Bass, Is High Point Man in Junior High Meet.

Joe Brown Junior High's track team won the only all-junior high track meet of the year yesterday afternoon at Grady field, getting 39 1-2 points in a walkway decision over the three other teams entered. The meet was sponsored by the Tech High Rainbow, weekly publication of that school, and was under the supervision of the varsity track men on Tech High's team.

The race for the other three positions was very close and proved the most exciting part of the meet. O'Keefe, coached by Jack Welch, managed to come second by winning the 50-yard dash, total 19, while Hoke Smith was third, only one point behind the Irishmen, and Bass was a close fourth with 16 1-2 markers.

The team from Bass was almost a one-man team. Lowry, their star cinder man, took 13 of the points they collected. Lowry won first place in the 50-yard dash and the 100-yard dash, and second in the 220. In making this excellent showing he amassed more points than any other individual, thus winning the gold plaque that was awarded the individual high scorer.

Runner-up position in the high point scoring was a tie between Griffin and Zachery, both members of the championship squad. Each man ran up 11 points, but Griffin won the toss to decide who should take the silver plaque, which was given by the Rainbow as prize for this accomplishment. Willis Greer, of O'Keefe Junior High, made the best showing for his team, winning two first places. He took the half-mile in a whirlwind finish, winning by inches, and tied for first in the high jump, thus halving the points for first and second, giving him a total of nine points.

GRIFFIN SCORES.
Griffin, the second place point scorer, won several seconds and a third, while Norman Perry, who won the 100-yard dash, took second in the broad jump and third in the 50-yard dash. Zachery, of Hoke Smith, was best for his team, getting first place in the pole vault, easily.

The relay race, which gave O'Keefe second place in the meet, was won in a run-away by the Graysen track team. They came in far ahead of the other three teams entered. On every lap of the half-mile, four-man race O'Keefe gained ground.

Gold medals were awarded to all of the men who took first places, silver medals to the second place winners and a Tech High belt was given to each man who placed third in any event. Joe Brown team was given a large silver loving cup in reward for winning first place in the meet.

Three Tech High athletes, who have been the mainstays of various Smith athletic teams, graduated Thursday night at the city auditorium and were awarded medals for the fine work that they have done this year for Tech High.

Roger Macnamara, star all-prep and all-southern center of the Tech High grid team, was given a gold medal by Lottis Brothers for being the best athlete in the National Athletic Scholarship Society in the opinion of his fellow members, who voted him the honor. Macnamara was also captain of the swimming team and has been one of the outstanding scholars of the school, having made the honor roll several times for his high scholastic work. In order to qualify for membership in the N. A. S. S. a man must pass all of his work for three consecutive semesters, and earn an athletic letter at the same time.

Neville Everett, star twirler on the baseball nine and captain of the rifle team, was awarded a gold medal for winning two athletic letters and making the honor roll. He was valedictorian of the senior class and the foremost performer on the rifle squad and the baseball team.

Buster Mott, one of the two three-letter men in school, was given the gold medal for being the best athlete in the school for the year. Mott was the fastest back on the grid squad, a star forward on the basketball team, and a heavy hitter on the baseball team.

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.
All but two of the Big Six spent their time on the railroad yesterday instead of on the ball fields or in playing exhibition games. Paul Waner and Jim Bottomley were the exceptions and they took the opportunity to add a few points to their batting averages. Waner, holder of second place, lifted his mark from .324 to .331 by getting a single and a triple in three times at bat. He remains 16 points behind the leader, Rogers Hornsby.

Legion Teams Open Play on June 12

12 Sandlot Organizations Attend Meeting at Y. M. C. A. Friday To Arrange Schedule.

A round dozen sandlot baseball teams, just the vanguard of a mighty horde, will begin elimination play in the American Legion "world series" June 12 at six local diamonds.

All this was decided at a well attended and rather noisy meeting Friday night at the Y. M. C. A. Major Trammell Scott, representing the legion, laid down the rules to the representatives of the 12 teams and arranged the schedule of first games.

Organization of the boys into leagues will be arranged at a meeting next Friday night at the same place and time. It is expected that at least 30 teams will be represented when the leagues are formed.

After considerable argument it was decided by vote that games should be played on Wednesdays and Fridays and that all contests would start at 10 o'clock.

Only 12 teams were represented Friday night but what the meeting lacked in numbers it made up in enthusiasm. When Major Scott informed the delegates that big league uniforms already were purchased for the winning team to wear to the state tournament, bedlam was loose and defiance was hurled about among the boys.

Recalling the unfortunate experience of several seasons ago when ineligible players on the list last season, Major Scott placed particular emphasis on the rules of the competition. Any amateur is eligible who was not born prior to midnight of September 14, 1912. To impress his point Major Scott called to mind the case of a Cleveland team which was thrown out of the eastern sectional competition last season because one boy was 32 days over the age limit. The team had won the state and regional title. The ineligibility of this one man nullified the efforts of 1,700 teams in the region.

ELIGIBILITY STRESSED.
The major also emphasized the point that eligibility rules must be adhered to in this section. His action in disqualifying teams last year would seem to prove this point.

The pairings for games on Friday, June 12, follow: Nellie Dodd Whiteheads play College Park Tigers, at College Park; South Decatur Valiant Knights play West End Bluebirds, at N. E. Piedmont; Fort Mac Orioles play Cardinals, at Oakland City; Kirkwood Cubs play Wildcats, at Grand Park; Scottsdale Avondale Aces, at Scottsdale; Landrum Gators play West End Wolves, at Joe Brown Junior High.

Other teams on the list who were not represented Friday are: South Side Terrors, Neighborhood Chapel, North Side Cubs and North Side Terrors.

Grogan To Fight For Horman June 7

Chicago, May 31.—(AP)—Tommy Grogan, Omaha slugger, and Luis Vincenti, Chilean lightweight, have been signed by Promoter Harmon for a 10-round bout on the Chicago stadium's June 7 boxing show.

Earl Nastro, Chicago featherweight, and Midget Mike O'Dowd, Columbus veteran, were signed Wednesday for a 10-rounder, and Harmon is seeking a third bout over the same route, with Otto Von Forst, the Chicago heavyweight as one of the punchers.

Other teams on the list who were not represented Friday are: South Side Terrors, Neighborhood Chapel, North Side Cubs and North Side Terrors.

Christner Signed.

New York, May 31.—(United News).—K. O. Christner, Akron, Ohio, heavyweight, will meet Otto Von Forst, of Chicago, in the 10-round semi-final to the Paulino Uscudun-Max Schmeling heavyweight bout at Yankee stadium June 27. Johnny Grosso, Billy Gibson's new heavyweight, will meet Angus Snyder in another 10-round bout.

'd Have Been Shot Next,' CONFESSED SLAYER DAPPER, 'ALMOST CHARMING' Manchester Tells Writer

(Editor's Note: Mrs. Mary Stoney Gray, prominent society woman of St. Petersburg, Fla., who arrived Friday in Atlanta, where she is widely known, stopped en route at Macon and interviewed Earl Manchester, 21-year-old Macon slayer, for The Constitution.)

By MARY STONEY GRAY.
Macon, Ga., May 31.—(Special.)—“I guess I'd have been the next one to get shot,” said Earl Manchester, 21-year-old Canadian, who has confessed he shot and killed James Parks Monday night.

“I didn't want to kill Parks, because I kinder liked him. He seemed like a nice young fellow and had never done me any harm, but when she talked to me it seemed so easy. Then when I would get away from her I'd lose my nerve. If I had had some licker I guess I could have done it sooner, because I had plenty of chances.”

“I told her I could not do it and that I didn't see why I should, with Parks so nice to me, and she would cry and say I was a coward, because she had already spent so much money on me. Then I said I would.”

“When I first went to see her (meaning Mrs. Sarah Powers, the 71-year-old Macon landlady, who, Manchester claims, connected the plot to kill Parks for the $14,000 insurance), she told me she had something she wanted me to do and would give me a lot of money. I was broke and $14,000 looked like a lot of money to me but at first I didn't know she wanted me to kill somebody. Then, when she told me she wanted me to kill someone I told her I couldn't, but after she talked and talked about it all day and all night for a few days, it didn't even seem wrong.

“All she wanted was the money, since she was broke and had always had plenty. She didn't care how she got it and she thought because Parks didn't have any people she wouldn't get caught up with. That's what makes me think that I would have been the next one to get shot, because she knew I was out of touch with my people and she was sort of afraid that I would talk.”

“My mother? I don't know anything about my mother. I guess I might as well not have had a mother. She left when I was five weeks old. She may be living and she may be dead. I don't know and neither does my father.”

“Why, I lived most of the time with my grandmother, my father's mother, and my aunt. I'm glad my grandmother won't know anything about this, because it would have killed her. She has been dead about a year, and I guess if she were living she never would have gotten into this trouble. She was the only person who ever cared about me, and she was mighty good to me.”

Not Killer Type.
Manchester is not the killer type. He is apparently the sort of young man who meets daily on the street and in the shops. He is well-dressed, almost dapper in his appearance, and possesses a manner that approaches being charming. He talks freely and seems to like to hide nothing, although he is well aware of the enormity of his crime and expects to pay the penalty for it.

Strangely, he seems not to feel hatred or fear for the woman whom he claims to have misled him. All he says about her is that “she was nice to me and I guess she just talked me into it.”

Manchester is expecting his father and brother to come to Atlanta, and until then he does not plan to engage a lawyer.

“I don't guess a lawyer can do me much good anyhow. I did the shooting and I'm guilty all right.”
